ROBBERY

XX Harvard St: On 4/9 at approximately 1950 hrs, an employee observed the suspect place two Advil bottles in his jacket and proceed towards to the front of the store. The employee confronted the suspect at which time the suspect mumbled incoherently and placed more items in his jacket and continued to proceed out the door. The employee again instructed the suspect to return the items. The suspect in turn made a threat to come back with friends and shoot the employee. The suspect then fled. C# 2020-1577.

ASSAULT

XX Warren St: On 4/7 at approximately 2145 hrs, the victim agreed to meet the suspect at this location after the suspect repeatedly called the victim regarding a $1700 bounced check from 17 years ago. The suspect was threatening in his interactions with the victim. The suspect began trying to convince the victim and a companion to meet him in a dark area of the property. The suspect then reached for a gun behind his back, closed distance on the victim and his companion and made threatening statements and then fired a single round in the air. A resident of the address called 911 and informed the parties outside of this at which time the suspect ran into the woods and ditched the gun. The suspect was arrested for Threats (2x), Assault w/ Dangerous Weapon (2x), and Discharging a Firearm W/I 500 ft of a Dwelling. A passenger in the suspect's vehicle was arrested for two warrants. C# 2020-1544.
